Chris Orestis is a 15 year veteran of both the insurance and long term care industries. His career began with senior positions on a number of political campaigns before working in 1993 and 1994 for both the White House and the Senate Majority Leader on Capitol Hill. From that point, he spent the next several years representing the health and life insurance industry as Vice President and Senior Vice President respectively for the Health Insurance Association of America (HIAA) and the American Council of Life Insurers (ACLI). In 1999, he was awarded the Robert R. Neal Medal by HIAA for distinction and service to the industry. His family is very prominent in the long term care industry as the largest owner/operator of nursing homes in the State of Maine and one of the top 50 in the United States. Chris, president and a principal with Life Care Funding Group, is an acknowledged national expert on insurance and long term care issues, is a frequent speaker, featured columnist and Contributing Editor to a number of industry publications, including: Insurance News Net, On the Risk, Society of Actuaries, HealthDecisions, ProducersWEB, ISIS, and InsuranceIntell. His Blog on senior living issues (www.lifecarefunding.com/blog) has become one of the more popular forums on the internet about the impact of the economy and politics on seniors and their housing and long term care needs.
