As a Consumer Advocate, an Educator, a member of the National Lenders Association of Reverse Mortgages, a Radio Show Host and a Professional Loan Officer, Onisha believes that financial literacy is one of the pillars of a sound economic plan. As a Senior Mortgage Advisor - with years of experience as an originator with some of the largest firms in the country, a Masters degree from the University of North Florida and a B.S. in Communications from Old Dominion University - Onisha brings a level of education, professionalism, and expertise that is often unseen in the mortgage industry.

Onisha specializes in the FHA Home Equity Conversion Mortgage. By taking the mystery out of mortgages, Onisha provides retirees and their family information that is transparent and empowering. She continues to motivate Older Adults to be conscious and prudent about their finances, their legacy, and their lives. For the many families that Onisha works with, the expertise that she offers - often with community resources, conventional or government financing options, and Professional Advice - is PRICELESS!

Not only is Onisha a consummate professional, she is also a person that gives from the heart and continuously seeks opportunities to share her unique blend of skills, talents, and abilities to help empower the lives of others. She feels that we often lose sight of the joys of living and encourages others to out LIVE themselves! This can only be done when we contribute our energy to the common causes that connect us all as human beings - the list is ENDLESS! For Onisha this includes honoring those who have lived the longest and encouraging them to continue in their grace.

Onisha is honored to be a resource that is dedicated to financial literacy, aging in financial grace, and living a life that is full and financially fabulous!
